On FORMATION

Data inform us:

Sisters and nuns are now looking for good formations.

Their superiors are open for this, taking care on it.

The main part of our grants is used for supporting regional and international meetings and sharings for monastics, male and female: 57% of grants.

Last but not least...

For the development, 59 %
of the money has been granted to female monasteries – not
or not only for their own, but to urge social works.

Through our
new Foundation
under Caritas France
AIM will be able to grant more
on social projects
in the future.

- Our responsibility as well as our duty is to hope for the future and to adapt monasticism, to make our RB relevant for people today. (some new « Aquinatas » may appear, who knows?)
- AIM is sometimes impressed by the challenges leaders have to face today – that kind of imperialism of individualism in our monastic communities.... What means « to bild a community » in our world?
